

GDPR COMPLIANCE

Cavanagh Communications applies a Privacy Policy which is in accordance with GDPR.

PRIVACY POLICY

Cavanagh Communications is committed to protecting your privacy. Our privacy policy tells you how and why we store your data, what type of data we hold and how it is used.

Your records on our database include contact details you submitted to us, and communications files we would have exchanged to do our work.

In order to protect your data and to maintain its quality, our system is encrypted and password protected.

We do not pass your information, or files, to any third parties.

When you visit our website, you can do so without submitting any personal data.

Should we engage in any direct marketing, you will be given the opportunity to opt-out.

You can change your preference for communication with us at any point, and this will be applied immediately.

If you would like to review the data we hold for you, please contact us and we'll arrange for this to be provided. For security reasons, we will ask for proof of identification. You have the right to rectify or delete inaccuracies, and to object to the processing of your personal data.

This Privacy Policy will be updated from time to time and it is your responsibility to check for changes.

Should you have any questions, please email ronan@cavanaghcommunications.ie
